

New Life for Your Sunday School

Inspiring . . . Thought Provoking . . . Practical

If you are looking for a way to add interest to your Sunday school staff meetings, look no further. James Robinson's book offers ways to make teachers meetings as productive as possible. Inspiring devotions affirm the importance of the Sunday school teacher's call and address issues that concern classroom teachers. Practical projects and thought-provoking ideas for staff discussion will give "new life" to your Sunday school program.

Gerald F. Kastens, administrator
WELS Parish Services
Commission on Youth Discipleship

James H. Robinson has served as principal and teacher of Lutheran schools in Missouri and Nebraska. He served 22 years as director of education and music at Peace Lutheran Church in Arvada, Colorado, before his retirement in 1988. He continues to teach and serve as a church organist. He and his wife R. Darlene have co-authored a number of books for church schools. His most recent book is Devotional Thoughts on Favorite Hymns, published by Northwestern Publishing House. They have a son and daughter and live in Arvada, Colorado.

New Life for Your Sunday School

A Resource for Sunday School Meetings

James H. Robinson

33 Devotions

13 Discussion Starters

25 Ideas for Promoting Your
Sunday School